Triumph Trans-American Charity Drive 2009

“A Brit driving across America and Canada for Charity”

John Macartney and his son Ed Mcartney have set off on a 10,000 mile journey to see the U.S. and Canada via the Triumph Trans-American Charity Drive 2009. They are hoping to collect $100,000 each for three separate charities. The charities are, Anxiety Disorders Association of Canada, The Sidran Institute in the United States and Assist Trauma Care in the United Kingdom.

The Triumph Trans-American Charity Drive 2009 is sponsored by The Vintage Triumph Register, Triumph Stag Club of the USA, Triumph Sports Six Club USA, Illinois Sports Owners Association, Classic Motorsports, Hemming Motor News and now, the Temple of Triumph.

John is a retired employee of Standard Triumph of Coventry. He is traveling across the U.S. and Canada to meet as many Standard-Triumph enthusiasts as he can. Most important of all, he wants them to help him achieve the overall objective of completing what is likely to be at least a 10,000 mile journey in a little over three months in a car that's thirty or more years old. This car is a recently restored Sapphire Blue Triumph Stag MK2.

They set off from Classic Motor Sports in Holly Hills, Florida on Saturday, June 27. After a pit stop in Ocala, Florida they drove to Tallahassee and spent the night at the Holiday Inn. "The Hamricks" met John and Ed on Saturday night and arranged for them to meet some "Templars" from the "Temple." Andre, Peter and I met everyone at the Silver Bullet Restaurant on Apalachee Parkway (used to be Banjos) around nineish Sunday morning June 28. We drove to the Hamricks home and used Obin's lift to inspect the brakes on the Stag John and Ed were driving. This is a recently restored Stag and we all know what that means. Yes! It's having its sorting out period. "Sorting out" means a few minor adjustments at every stop. Luckily John seems to understand his Triumph. Obin and Andre helped John bleed the Stag's squishy brakes.

After posing for pictures and presenting John and Ed with a $100 check from the Temple, we then followed them down I 10 to Highway 90 on the west edge of town. David Knopf
